Course Description:

This course scrutinizes the evolution of international institutions, and juxtaposes competing theoretical approaches for understanding the changing roles and functions of institutions in world affairs. Particular emphasis will be given to regional institutions in Europe and Asia.

Required Texts:

Margaret Karns and Karen Mingst, International Organizations: The Politics and Processes of Global Governance. (Boulder: Lynne Rienner, 2009).

Michael Green and Bates Gill, Asia's New Multilateralism: Cooperation, Competition, and the Search for Community. (New York: Columbia University Press, 2009).

John McCormick, Understanding the European Union: A Concise Introduction. (Palgrave, 2008).

Course Requirements:

Students must have completed all their readings for each class and are expected to participate in classroom discussions. Students must also keep up with current events in world politics by regularly reading a high quality news source like the New York Times, Washington Post, Wall Street Journal, Financial Times, etc.

Regular attendance is expected and will be crucial for your success. Please note that Georgia Tech's Honor code is in effect for this course.

The course grade will be as follows:

2 Map Quizzes 10%

Midterm 30%

Class presentation and team paper 25% (further directions will be given in class)

Class participation 10%
