Office Hours: Monday & Tuesday 2-3 & by appointment

Course Description:

The purpose of this course is: 1) to expose students to the history of European security provisions beginning with the early post-1945 period; 2) to familiarize students with the significant changes the international system experienced in the late 1980s; 3) to analyze the principal explanations given for various security proposals in the post-Cold War environment; 4) to examine scholarly writings discussing a "new world order" and to speculate about future developments.

Required Texts:

Jolyon Howorth, Security and Defence Policy in the European Union. (Palgrave/MacMillan, 2007).

Tony Judt, Postwar: A History of Europe Since 1945 (Penguin, 2005).

Lawrence Kaplan, NATO Divided, NATO United. (Praeger, 2004).

NATO Handbook <http://www.nato.int/docu/handbook/2001/index.htm#CH1>

(also see main NATO website <http://www.nato.int/>)

Course Requirements:

Students must have completed all their readings for each class and are expected to participate in classroom discussions. Regular attendance is important and I will adhere to a "3 strikes and you are out" policy. Students must also keep up with current events in world politics by regularly reading a high quality news source like the Financial Times, the New York Times or the Wall Street Journal.

Also, please note that Georgia Tech's Honor Code is in effect for this course.

The course grade will be as follows:

Midterm 30%
